

Domestic Student Withdrawals, Transfers and Refunds Policy

Toi Ohomai Institute of Technology acknowledges that students may need to withdraw from a course because of unforeseen circumstances; or transfer to another course that better suits them. Before transferring to another course, students are required to discuss their intention with their Programme Leader. It is also recommended that students discuss their intention to withdraw with their Programme Leader so that Toi Ohomai has an opportunity to suggest alternative options for the student.

From time to time Toi Ohomai may also need to cancel a course or manage the withdrawal of a student in circumstances where withdrawal is the only option. In this regard, Toi Ohomai is committed to ensuring a fair and consistent process is followed for all withdrawals, transfers and refunds; and has set out below a summary of its withdrawals, transfers and refunds policy. Faculty Dean approval is required for all refunds.
